The Shandon Neighborhood Council is a voluntary neighborhood organization that serves in an advisory capacity to transmit the concerns of Shandon residents to the government administration and elected representatives of the City of Columbia and Richland County. It promotes the maintenance of and improvements to the quality of life and property in Shandon and supports the neighborhood by hosting events and securing charitable contributions to support its activities. There are no dues or assessments. The Council is chartered as a charitable organization by the S.C. Secretary of State and is recognized as tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Any Shandon resident is eligible to vote in the election of Councilmembers, who are elected at-large at the annual plenary meeting on the second Monday of March of each year. To serve on the Council, you must be a resident of Shandon, able to attend the six (6) regularly scheduled Council meetings per year, and willing to participate in committee activities and the planning and execution of neighborhood events hosted by the Council. Regular meetings of the Council are traditionally held on the second Monday evenings of the months of May, July, September, November, January, and March (annual meeting).
